So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said bill was passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

¶130.54 UNFINISHED BUSINESS— APPROVAL OF THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PEASE, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced the unfinished business to be the question on agreeing to the Chair's approval of the Journal of Saturday, November 8, 1997.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House agree to the Chair's approval of said Journal?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PEASE, announced that the yeas had it.

So the Journal was approved.

¶130.55 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF CERTAIN RESOLUTIONS IN PREPARATION FOR THE ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

Ms. PRYCE, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 311):

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House a joint resolution waiving certain enrollment requirements with respect to certain specified bills of the One Hundred Fifth Congress. The joint resolution shall be considered as read for amendment. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) One hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the majority leader and the minority leader or their designees; and (2) one motion to commit.

SEC. 2. Upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House a joint resolution appointing the day for the convening of the second session of the One Hundred Fifth Congress. The joint resolution shall be considered as read for amendment. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) One hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the majority leader and the minority leader or their designees; and (2) one motion to commit.

SEC. 3. The Speaker, the majority leader, and the minority leader may accept resignations and make appointments to commissions, boards, and committees following the adjournment of the first session sine die as authorized by law or by the House.

SEC. 4. A resolution providing that a committee of two Members of the House be appointed to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that the House of Representatives has completed its business of the session and is ready to adjourn, unless the President has some other communication to make to them, is hereby adopted.

SEC. 5. A concurrent resolution providing that the two Houses of Congress assemble in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Tuesday, January 27, 1998, at 9 p.m., for the purpose of receiving such communication as the President of the United States shall be pleased to make to them is hereby adopted.

SEC. 6. House Resolution 306 is laid on the table.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Ms. PRYCE, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PEASE, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. SOLOMON demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the { Yeas 257
